

25. This helmet I suppose

Arac with Guron, Scynthus and Chorus

Allegro comodo

Arac

1. This hel - met, I sup - pose. Was meant to ward off blows, It's ve - ry hot, And weighs a lot, As ma - ny a guards - man knows, As ma - ny a guards - man knows. As ma - ny a guards - man knows, As

Arac

Arac

9

Arac

ma-ny a guards-man knows, So off, _____ so off that hel-met goes.

12

Arac

(Giving their helmets to attendants.) 2. This tight-fit-ting cui-rass Is

Gur Scy

Yes, yes, yes, So off that hel-met goes!

S A

Yes, yes, yes, So off that hel-met goes!

T B

Yes, yes, yes, So off that hel-met goes!

15

Arac

but a use-less mass, It's made of steel, and weighs a deal, This tight-fit-ting cui-rass Is but a

18

Arac

use - less mass, A man is_ but an ass Who fights in_ a cui-rass, So off, _____ so

22

Arac

off goes_ that cui-rass. 3. These

(Removing cuirasses)

Gur Scy

Yes, yes, yes, So off goes that cui-rass!

S A

Yes, yes, yes, So off goes_ that cui-rass!

T B

Yes, yes, yes, So off goes that cui-rass!

f

25

Arac

bras-sets, truth to tell, May look un - com-mon well, But in a fight They're much too tight, They're

Arac
like a lob-ster shell, ____They're like a lobster shell. 4. These (Removing their brassets)

Gur
Scy
Yes, yes, yes, They're like a__lobster shell!

S
A
Yes, yes, yes, They're like a__lobster shell!

T
B
Yes, yes, yes, They're like a__lobster shell!

Arac
things I treat the same, (I quite for - get their name.) They turn__one's__legs to crib - bage__ pegs- Their

Arac
aid I thus dis-laim, Their aid I thus dis-claim, Tho' I for - get their name, Tho'

38

Arac

I for - get their name, Their aid, _____ their aid I — thus dis-claim.

(They remove their leg pieces and wear close-fitting shape suits.)

41

Arac

Their aid we thus dis-claim!

Gur Scy

Yes, yes, yes, Their aid we thus dis-claim!

S A

Yes, yes, yes, Their aid we — thus dis-claim!

T B

Yes, yes, yes, Their aid we thus dis-claim!